LITANY OF CELEBRATION

- Leader: We gather now as did our foreparents to give you praise for your amazing grace that has brought us thus far along the way.
- Congregation: We thank you for those who brought us into the faith, for those who were our examples: mothers, fathers, deacons, teachers, and pastors.
- Leader: We have returned to this landmark and where we have been lax and unconcerned we also announce today that we have come to return to you and the work that you have given us to do.
- Congregation: We ask that this day you would bind together broken families, bring peace to troubled communities and make each of us instruments of the change we want to see.
- Leader: We thank you for family and friends who have returned that we might collectively worship you and affirm again that we are your people and the sheep of your pasture.
- Congregation: Forever bless this church which has stood as a landmark of faith for so many. Let her light continue to shine until you come again.
- Leader: Now we pause to pay homage to all of those who are not with us today because they now reside in Paradise. Thank you for their lives. We now stand on their shoulders.
- All: Throughout this service and celebration our ultimate aim is to give you glory. You are worthy of our highest praise. Amen and Amen.

He didn't believe in God's word;
But I can truly say that God had made a way,
