Church Covenant

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior; and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this Church in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place in our affections, prayers and services above every organization of human origin; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly, as God has prospered us toward its expenses, for the support of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us, the relief of the poor and the spread of the Gospel throughout the world. In case of differences of opinion in the Church, we will strive to avoid a contentious spirit, and if we cannot unanimously agree, we will cheerfully recognize the right of the majority to govern.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to study diligently the Word of God; to educate our children in matters of faith; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be kind and just to those in our employ, and faithful in the service we promise others; endeavoring in the purity of heart and good will toward humanity, to exemplify and commend our holy faith.

We further engage to watch over, to pray for, to exhort and to stir up each other unto every good word and work; to guard each other's reputation, not needlessly exposing the infirmities of others; to participate in each other's joys, and, with tender sympathy, bear one another's burdens and sorrows; to cultivate Christian courtesy; to be slow to give or take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, being mindful of the rules of the Savior set forth in the eighteenth chapter of Matthew, and to secure it without delay; and through life, amid evil report and good report, to seek to live to the glory of God, who has called us out of darkness into His marvelous light.

Should we remove from this place, we shall unite as soon as possible with another church, where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's word.

Guest Psalmist

“A soulful approach to melodic art” is what artist TiffanyJ embodies. Through many forms of artistic expression, TiffanyJ has uncovered her calling and is on a mission to help others embrace their uniqueness & individuality as a testament of overcoming depression in her past.

TiffanyJ began growing her gift of music at First Nazareth Baptist Church where for over 30 years she watched her mother lead the choir. Following her mother’s footsteps, she became part of the award winning, urban inspirational group Eternal Voices. Her understanding of music leads her in 2008, along with her sister and best friend to create Real Records & Entertainment LLC. The partnership birthed several projects including music for Eternal Voices, an independent film “Addiction: What’s Yours?” and television show “Spare the Rod.” Soon after, she continued her entrepreneurship journey with the establishment of her multimedia design firm, TJ’s Elements LLC.

In 2012, TiffanyJ debuted herself as a solo artist with the release of her single, “Flying Solo.” Soon after, she released an audio-visual collection of original music entitled, “Bird’s Eye View.” The discovery and growth of TiffanyJ led her to create the self-esteem movement for young queens 6-17 years old called Beauty, You Are Boot Camp, sharing her experience of defeating depression and low self-esteem. In Spring 2016, she released her album, “EVOLving,” a musical journey about growing through love.

From the television screen to a bookstore near you, TiffanyJ released her first book, It All Starts with Me: An Interactive Guide to Discovering Self and Loving It, in August 2017 with foreword written by her mentor, Grammy Award Nominated R&B Artist, Angie Stone. She has released several collections of music to include her latest and sophomore album, "Epiphany 3:25", and has several music videos available.

In 2018, she was led to create and develop the fictional characters, Super Beauty, and Handsome Hero, which motivated her to create the Super Beauty & Handsome Hero Pep Talker plush dolls that says over 20 motivational phrases to boost self-esteem. This brand has led her to be featured on BET’s Grand Hustle and Good Morning America and in publications such as Black Enterprise, Essence, and Hype Hair. TiffanyJ also serves as the Creative Director for 7Sunday, a non-profit production platform that showcases independent musical artists primarily representing the Carolinas.

TiffanyJ is just getting started. What will she evolve into next? You’ll have to stay tuned to see.
